

December 2004 - Proposed Revised Edition of Maritime Conventions Act 1911 (Final Report)

The Maritime Conventions Act 1911 is an imperial legislation enacted by the United Kingdom Parliament. Pursuant to the Application of English Law Act (Cap. 7A), this piece of imperial legislation applies in Singapore. However, the 1911 Act had not been published as a revised edition. This report by the Law Reform and Revision Division explains the issues dealt with in seeking to bring the 1911 Act into conformity with the local Acts. The report contains a draft 2004 Revised Edition of the 1911 Act.