SENIOR MANAGEMENT APPOINTMENT

The Prime Minister's Office announced today that the President has appointed Justice Goh Yihan as Deputy Attorney-General in the Attorney-General's Chambers for a term of two years with effect from 1 January 2025.

2 Attorney-General Mr Lucien Wong said, "I am pleased that Justice Goh will be taking on the appointment of Deputy Attorney-General. He is a respected High Court Judge and a former Dean of the School of Law at the Singapore Management University. He brings with him extensive knowledge of Singapore's legal system and deep experience in many areas of the law, having also served as amicus curiae to the Court of Appeal on numerous occasions. His appointment will benefit the Attorney-General's Chambers and I look forward to working with him."
